

▲ 233 Main Street

Sesquicentennial Celebration of Our Prime Ministers

Sir Robert Borden

Led by Dr. Greg Donaghy

7:00 p.m., MONDAY, MAY 29

Room L120, 233 Main Street, Saint Paul University

Come celebrate and learn - it's free

Dr. Greg Donaghy will be helping us better understand the life and times of Sir Robert Borden, prime minister during the trying days of the "Great War." Greg is Head of the Historical Section and Deputy Director, Policy Research Division, Global Affairs Canada. He received his BA from the University of Toronto, his MA from Carleton University, and his PhD from the University of Waterloo. His publications include Tolerant Allies: Canada and the United States, 1963-1968 and Grit: The Life and Politics of Paul Martin Sr. as well as over fifty scholarly articles and reviews on the history of Canadian foreign policy. Grit was a finalist for the 2015 Shaughnessy Cohen Prize for Political Writing. This is the third of a series of talks to celebrate Canada's prime ministers.

Pre-registration would be appreciated: info@ottawaeast.ca

Presented by the Old Ottawa East Community Association (OOECA) and Saint Paul University.

Additional information and reading suggestions at: <http://www.ottawaeast.ca/>

Short Description:

MONDAY, MAY 29, 2017

Sesquicentennial Prime Ministers Book Club - Sir Robert Borden

7:00 p.m., Room L120, 233 Main Street, Saint Paul University

Greg Donaghy will present the life and times of Sir Robert Borden, prime minister during the trying days of the "Great War." Greg is Head of the Historical Section and Deputy Director, Policy Research Division, Global Affairs Canada and author of Grit: The Life and Politics of Paul Martin Sr. Grit was a finalist for the 2015 Shaughnessy Cohen Prize for Political Writing. This is the third of a series of talks to celebrate Canada's prime ministers.